

Disclaimer of liability:

During the participation of a competition and event sanctioned by the NBC of WNBA, I acknowledge the disclaimer of liability towards the organisers and hosts concerning damage of any kind. I will not assert one's claims towards organisers, hosts and sponsors or their representatives regarding damages and injuries, which could occur through my participation.

I declare, to have trained sufficiently for the attendance of the respective competition, to be physically healthy and had my health condition medically approved.

I agree to the usage without compensation of registration information, photos, film exposure, interviews for radio, TV, advertising, books or photomechanical replication (photos, movies, videos, etc.) related to my participation.

I agree to the usage of my information for advertising purposes.

I assure the correctness of my information stated in the announcement of the competition and I will not pass my bid number or accreditation to any other person.

I acknowledge the right of the organiser to bar me from competition after a proven violation of the previously stated obligations. Changes to the course of the competition remain reserved to the organisers. In a case of non-realization, alteration or discontinuation of the competition due to circumstances beyond our control (technical breakdown, misfortunes or suchlike), regulatory action or safety reason ensues no refund of expenses.

In a case of a non-starter after previous registration exists no claim for refund of charges.

Notifications of changes of names prior to the competition are ruled through International Sport Rules, by-laws and supplementary regulations.